CARD OF THANKS.

The ladies of the Catholic church wish to thank all those who attended the "Silver Tea," and helped to make it a success. They realized $48.75.

WHIPPED BY PARENT IN POLICE COURT

Dennis Leer, a young negro, arrested Saturday for participating in a number of quarrels with white boys, was taken before Judge E. B. January yesterday afternoon. At the conclusion of the case Judge January ordered the boy's father, Ben Leer, into court, and in the presence of several witnesses the boy's back was bared and the lash applied with telling effect. It was Judge January's opinion that a public whipping would be of little value upon the incorrigible lad, and he sentenced him to the jail, where he will adopt this rule in dealing with boys brought into his court.

ELLERY BAND PLEASURES TWO GOOD AUDIENCES

Two good audiences were present, Saturday night, at the Paris Fair grounds Sunday, to hear the Ellery Band, which was en route to Knoxville, to play during the National Conservation Exposition, which opened in that city yesterday. Fully 1,500 people heard the excellent program, which was rendered in a faultless style, and the audiences showed their great appreciation of the musical treat by frequent applause and the musicians were compelled to respond to an encore after each number. As soon as the band finishes in Knoxville, which will be some time in December, an effort will be made to secure it for another engagement in this city.

MUSICIAN STRUCK BY AUTO- MOBILE AND INJURED

A member of the Ellery Band, whose name could not be ascertained, was struck by an automobile driven by Samuel Atlas Sunday, shortly after noon, at the corner of High and Tenth streets, and painfully injured. The accident occurred while several members of the band were waiting for a car and Atlas turning the corner ran into the crowd. The injured man, being advanced in years, was unable to get beyond danger before the machine struck him, knocking him to the street and inflicting a number of painful injuries. He was attended by a physician, and was able to leave with the other members of the band Sunday night.

CATHOLIC LADIES HOLD SILVER TEA IN SCHOOL.

The ladies of the Catholic church celebrated the completion of the parochial school building Friday afternoon and evening by giving a silver tea, which was well attended and netted a neat sum. The school is located at the corner of Main and Twelfth streets, being the residence erected by the late W. R. Thomas, and sold to the trustees of the school last spring by Mr. Miller Ward. It is most desirable in every respect and is handsomely finished throughout with hardwood floors and every modern convenience. By a few changes on the first floor the home has been converted into a commodious school building, with living rooms on the second floor for the Sisters, who will arrive and take charge in a few days. The ladies receiving and assisting Friday were: Mrs. P. Nippert, Mrs. Maria Lyons, Mrs. J. J. Connel, Mrs. Geo. McWilliams, Misses Mary McCarthy and Annie Kelley. The rooms were made very attractive by the use of plants and delicious ices and cakes were served.

FATHER WOUNDS SON IN A FAMILY QUARREL

A family quarrel resulted in the shooting of Allie Carr, a negro, by his father, Alex Carr, Sunday morning. The shooting occurred at the home of the elder Carr, near Little Rock, this county.

It is alleged that the father of the boy became involved in a difficulty with his wife when the son interceded in behalf of his mother, and succeeded in separating the couple, when his father attempted to administer a whipping to his spouse.

Shortly afterward the boy left the house, and his father becoming incensed at the action of the boy secured a shot gun and waited for him to return to the house. As he was about Carr opened fire the charge taking effect in the right arm and inflicting a severe though not fatal wound. His injuries were attended to by Dr. P. L. McClure.

Upon the information retained regarding the shooting a warrant was issued in this city Sunday afternoon for the arrest of Carr, and Deputy Sheriff W. F. Talbott went to his home where he took him into custody bringing him to Paris where he was lodged in jail. He was arraigned in the County Court yesterday afternoon and his examining trial set for Wednesday morning.

NEGRO ARRESTED CARRYING A REVOLVER CONCEALED

Friday night Patrolman Fred Link arrested Keller Thomas, a negro from near Shawhan Station, and placed him in jail on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. Thomas was taken into custody on Main street near the Eighth street corner, and after he had attempted to draw his revolver on the officer. Thomas, in company with a negro man and woman, were walking down the street three abreast, obstructing the sidewalk, and when accosted by the officer the woman became very abusive. She was placed under arrest and at this Thomas began to fumble in his coat as if making an effort to get something out of his pocket. Patrolman Charles Thomas, who was close at hand, went to the assistance of Link, and took charge of the woman, while the later officer grappled with Thomas and took the weapon, a .38-calibre revolver from his pocket. Both were locked up and upon the charge the negro was fined $25.00 and costs and given twenty days in jail at hard labor, while the woman, who was charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $17.50.

MATRIMONIAL.

LEER-CARUTHERS.

A very beautiful wedding was celebrated Thursday evening at the Christian church, uniting Miss Amelia Tevis Leer and Mr. Alfred Caruthers, of Middlesboro.

The church was exquisitely decorated with palms, ferns and cut flowers, and lighted with quantities of glowing white tapers.

Miss Clara Belle O'Neal rendered a beautiful musical program during the assembling of the guests and Miss Dorothy Talbott sang sweetly two selections, "O, Promise Me" and "My Dear."

To the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal March the wedding party entered from opposite aisles. Mr. G. G. McFerra, of Big Stone Gap, Va., and Mr. Roger Early, Jr., of Lexington, leading, followed by the bridesmaids, Miss Bessie Stone, of Georgetown, and Miss Lucille Brooks, of Lexington. Both were handsomely gowned in pink crepe and carried arm bouquets of pink roses. Next came the little flower girl and boy, Miss Mary Louise Clendenin, the beautiful little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clendenin, and Master Leer Buckley, the handsome son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Buckley. They carried baskets of pink roses. Mrs. Roger Early, a sister of the bride, acted as dame of honor and came next in the bridal procession. She was very lovely in her exquisite gown of pale blue. Then came the beautiful bride alone. She wore an elegant gown of soft white satin, her tulle veil was held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms and she carried a bower of lovely lilies. The groom and best man, Mr. Alexander Tinley, of Middlesboro, entered from the side door and met the bride at the altar. The impressive ring ceremony was used, Rev. W. E. Ellis officiating. The party left the church to the joyous wedding march by Mendelssohn.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. James Monroe Leer, and is an accomplished and popular young woman. The groom is an attractive and prosperous business man of Middlesboro. Amid the hearty congratulations of all, the young couple left for a wedding journey to the Northern lakes, and upon their return, will go to housekeeping in their own lovely home.
